Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Schintz will entertain tonight at their home on West Jefferson street with a four-course dinner in honor of their eleventh wedding anniversary. The house will be decorated in red, white and blue, and the same color scheme will be carried out on the table. Five hundred will be played during the evening and the guests are all from La Salle, in which town the host and hostess were married. The guests were all witnesses of the ceremony. They are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koenig, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Koenig, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fenwick, Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olinchegler.

Miss Katherine Clara Mick was pleasantly surprised last evening at the home of her parents on Ottawa avenue when twenty of her old friends called to spend the evening. The party was in the nature of a farewell, as little Miss Mick will leave Ottawa in the near future to make her home in Chicago. The evening was spent with games and refreshments were served by Mrs. Mick. The guest of honor received as a remembrance of her friends a string of gold rosary beads. The only out-of-town guest was Miss Anna Downey of Chicago.

Misses Dorothy White and Kathleen Carey entertained at the latter's home on Superior street on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Lincoln Bunt of Streator, near Margaret Holtrich, a recent bride. The evening was spent in playing games and at a late hour refreshments were served by the hostesses. The party was in the nature of a shower, and Mrs. Bunt received some attractive gifts, including a chest of silver from ten of the girls.

San Francisco, June 29.—Tom Marshall is running around town telling everybody he is a peace maker. If Tom is such a grand little peace maker, why doesn't he make peace with Germany?

The mother-in-law joke was shelved years ago, but McAfee has given us a new one. The father-in-law joke.

Nearly all the senators in the United States have had a hand in running the two conventions this year. The only one both of them have really needed is Nick Altrock.

One of the Delaware houses who has gained much prominence by always wearing a pair of spats at a national convention has broken into the limelight this time by appearing without them. Who would pay any attention to two little spats at a battle?

WOMEN WHO SUFFER FROM BACKACHE AND DIZZY SPELLS

Cairo, Ill.—"For the past ten years I have depended on a great deal upon 'Favorite Prescription' whenever I have been run-down, weak or nervous, and especially when going through middle life it is simply wonderful the relief 'Favorite Prescription' gave me from backaches and dizzy spells. 'I certainly take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all women going through this trying period of life.'—Mrs. J. H. HAYES, 517 Tenth St.

Young Mothers
Savannah, Ill.—"I found Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to be a splendid tonic during expectancy and it helped to eliminate suffering. I would never hesitate to recommend it to other young mothers, not to use it again."—Mrs. J. W. KILGUS, Gilbur St.

Quincy, Ill.—"When I was a girl at home Dr. Pierce's medicines were in constant use in our family. My mother and sister took the 'Favorite Prescription' with good results and the 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured my brother of a very bad cough that had bothered him for some time. Since I married I took 'Favorite Prescription' for woman's weakness, also during expectancy when I was all run-down, weak and nervous and would be nauseated all the time. I was so delicate I could scarcely get around. The 'Prescription' soon gave me strength and kept me feeling well. My baby weighed twelve pounds. I really could not have gone through what I did only for 'Favorite Prescription.'—Mrs. STELLA STECKDALL, 1532 Jefferson St.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schumacher entertained the young ladies who are employed at the National City Bank this morning at a June breakfast at their home in South Ottawa. Seven guests were in attendance. The house and table were prettily decorated with Dorothy Perkins roses. The affair was one of the most delightful informal affairs of the June season.

The June meeting of the World Wide guild of the First Baptist church will be held on Friday evening at the home of Miss Helen Hall on East Main street. Plans will be made in holding the annual picnic in two weeks on this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rabenstein and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rabenstein will give a family dinner in honor of the former's tenth wedding anniversary, and the latter's twentieth anniversary, this evening. Only immediate members of the family will be present and the affair will be very quiet.

Messames George Forbes, Fred Gehler and W. L. Elmyre entertained this afternoon at the former's home on Pearl street with a bridge party. Ten tables were played and the house was attractively decorated with garden flowers. Late in the afternoon delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Elizabeth Vincent entertained at her home on East Pearl street last evening at a very pleasant informal dance in honor of Miss Gray Traylor of Philadelphia, who is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Herring. The guests spent a delightful evening dancing from 9 until 1. At a late hour a delicious supper was served.

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Dr. H. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA
Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.
